IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
IN INSOLVENCY

INSOLVENCY PETITION NO. 60 OF 2002

Re.: Veena G. Chandavarkar & anr. ... Debtors

Ex-parte:
Anil G. Shah ... Substituted petitioning Creditor.

Mr. Kishore Jain for the substituted petitioning creditor.

CORAM: P.V. KAKADE, J.
DATED: 6TH DEC., 2005

P.C.:

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioning creditor who seeks permission to withdraw the petition as the debts have been satisfied.

2. In view of the facts and circumstances, permission is granted. Petition stands disposed of as withdrawn with no order as to costs against debtor No.1 Veena G. Chandavarkar.

3. The proceeding shall not continue against debtor No.2 Ganesh B. Chandavarkar as the petitioning creditor has not prosecuted his claim against him. In the result, the entire petition stands disposed of with no order as to costs.
